The report

from the Chair.

The fund balance as of September 30th, 2020, is 28.7 million. The first quarterly transfer of 625,000 to the OPEB Trust Fund was made; however, the City is looking for ways to control spending during the current pandemic, and the City has not and will not be making the remaining three payments for the year.

Transfers into to the police arbitration fund have continued again for this year.

Transfers to the fire arbitration fund from the City's general fund have continued again for this year as well.

Next, we'll have the solicitor's report.

MR. FRANK: Thank you. As you know, the professional service providers to the OPEB Fund, which are my law firm and Fifth Third, are required under the state pension act to submit annual disclosures of any political contributions, any gifts to city employees, et cetera. They were to be filed by May 1 of each year. My firm and Fifth Third submitted their disclosures. I reviewed the Fifth Third disclosure, and it was in order.

In terms of other work that I've done since the last meeting, an issue arose in April after our last board meeting that the auditors wanted information regarding the calculation of the contributions to the disabled firefighters' OPEB fund, and I worked with Adam Hoffman to provide that to our auditors.

As is coming up on our agenda, our longtime court reporter, Rita Ross, has advised us she will not be continuing to work, regrettably. I advised staff that we will need to issue a request for proposals for a new court reporter for our meetings as it is an outside professional service. Other than that, there's been no legal activity since the last board meeting. That concludes my report. MR. ANDERSON: Thank you, Mr. Solicitor. Fifth Third report? MR. McFARLAND: Okay. First, I'm going to defer to Brad Walters to see if he has any administrative comments, and then I'll get into the investment review. Brad? MR. WALTERS: Hey, Keith. Thanks. I am unaware of any open items. I'll defer also to Adam to see if there have been any issues with working with the accounts at Fifth Third currently. Everything is good. Everything MR. HOFFMAN: No. is all right. MR. WALTERS: All right. Back to you, Keith. MR. McFARLAND: Okay. I'll begin on the report. I'm going to start with just a brief economic overview, and then I'll get into the report. The report I will be reviewing in more detail will be the larger one for the Pittsburgh Other

Post Employment Benefits Trust, and then I will briefly go over the firefighters fund, which we just invested, per this policy, from the last meeting.

The stock market. Obviously, the market, in general, has reacted to the COVID-19 crisis and the election. Those two things are the dominant themes in the market this year. For our last meeting, the market had sold off significantly at the end of March and has rallied back through the summer. The market sold off a little bit in September, rallied back in October, sold off for the first few days here in November and then the last two days -- I think, as it appears there will be a quicker solution to the election -- has rallied back and today is having its best day since early summer.

If you turn to page 4 of that report, just to briefly go over what the returns were of various market indices as of September 30. The biggest thing I'm going to point out, because that is the biggest part of the equity part of this portfolio, is the S&P 500 year to date as of the end of September, up 5.57 percent.

So given all that has happened in the market and the volatility -- particularly take it out to one year -- it's up 15.14 percent. It's as if there hasn't been any market turmoil, though there obviously has been. Even as of yesterday, the market is up 5.88 percent, and the market is up significantly today. So despite all the challenges, markets are always forward looking. And I think the markets, A, obviously see an end of the election soon, hopefully, and also they see an end to the COVID-19 at least some point in the future.

Some companies have actually done well. Small and mid-cap companies have not done as well throughout this crisis, but, as you look, the markets have been very supportive. The Federal Reserve has lowered interest rates, which is also supportive to equities. So all in all, the market, at least domestically, has performed admirably throughout the year.

I'm going to jump ahead. And if you'll see, throughout the book I have some market information from Fifth Third Bank, from our investment group, but I will get right into the report.

Starting on page 12, looking at the asset allocation, as you'll see, 55.5 percent in equities, 5 percent in real assets. That composes -- those really compose our equity component to the portfolio. Our target from the investment policy is 60 percent equity, so we're right on target. About 2 percent cash, 33 percent fixed income. And alternative strategies, which we use as a fixed income, to hedge against fixed income.

If we go to the -- starting on page 13 and 14, highlighting how we invest, it's a very diversified portfolio.

You'll see the fixed income -- it's the second gray line -- and the investments are listed below.

The Fifth Third Intermediate/Gov/Credit. That's just a title there, but that is a portfolio of individual bonds that you own. That is actually a very good thing when we have a volatile fixed income market because you own those individual bonds. You're not subject to others' cash flows as you are in a mutual fund, and you own those bonds to maturity. So that has helped us weather the storm as fixed income markets and interest rates have come down significantly.

The next page, you'll see the equity investments and you'll see diversified, primarily low-cost iShares. So it's a very inexpensive portfolio. We use factor investments and manage those factors in an active fashion to provide attribution over time.

If we go to page 17, looking at the performance, I'll highlight the gray lines first. And each line indicates a category. Going to the second line, Fixed Income, you'll see year to date it is up 5.3 percent. Again, a reflection of interest rates coming down. Slightly below the benchmark, but as you see over the last three months, we've made up ground. That is a result of what happened at the end of March when the corporate part of the portfolio seized up and credit actually -- the Fed has gone on to add stimulus to the markets, and those markets have begun to perform much better, as you see by the last three months' return.

The equity portfolio year to date, up 1.7 percent.

The large cap is up 5.5 percent, but, you know, the drag has been in small to mid and international investments. But as you look at the last three months, we have seen significant recovery in those markets as well.

If we go to the next page, on page 18, we'll see the net-of-fee returns. Year to date, the whole portfolio is up 3.1 percent. Over the last year, 7.9 percent. And for the 5-year period, 7.7 percent. So the portfolio has performed very much in line with its investment objective over that period of time.

Quickly, there's -- the other report is the City of Pittsburgh Disabled Firefighters OPEB. At the last meeting, we got confirmation to invest that per the same policy. This portfolio is, obviously, a lot smaller, and it also has timing on its side because it was invested when the market was down from the big sell-off earlier this year.

So if you thumb through that report, page 3, about 60 percent equities, about 4 percent real assets. A few more alternative strategies here, just given the timing of when this was invested. Similar investments throughout the portfolio.

But if we skip ahead to page 7, again, this is -this has really only been invested in the equities, really, since the last meeting. And you'll see 2.7 percent for fixed income over the three months. Equity at 9.2 percent. Real assets at 3.8 percent. Again, the benefit of being invested when the market is down.

And looking at the bottom on page 8, since inception this portfolio is up 5.5 percent. Year to date, 7.5. Over the last year, 8 percent. So the portfolio has performed very well. And, again, timing sometimes is everything in investments.

With that, are there any questions?

That will conclude my report.

MR. ANDERSON: Okay. Thank you, Mr. McFarland.

Korn Ferry report?

MS. LAKSANA: I don't believe we have anything to report for this meeting.

We are in the process of finishing up the January 1st, 2020, valuation for the OPEB, which will be used for the financial disclosure for the fiscal year ending December 31st, 2020. We will also be completing the disclosure for the disabled firefighters fund as well, so a broader report with the results will be presented in the April meeting.

MR. ANDERSON: Great. Thank you.

Next, presentation of resolutions. First,

Resolution 2-20, a resolution authorizing the payment for professional service rendered by Frank, Gale, Bails, Murcko &

Pocrass, P.C., in the amount of $800 for the months of April

1	2020 through September 2020. Any discussion?
2	Hearing none, can I have a motion to approve?
3	MS. MANUEL: This is Janet. I make a motion to
4	approve.
5	MR. ANDERSON: Second?
6	MS. HILTON: Second.
7	MR. ANDERSON: All in favor?
8	Aye.
9	MS. HILTON: Aye.
10	MS. MANUEL: Aye.
11	MR. ANDERSON: Next, new business. After this year
12	Ross Reporting as Solicitor Frank said, after this year,
13	Ross Reporting will not be continuing their stenographer
14	services, so an RPF will need to be issued to fill the
15	stenographer role.
16	Any continued business?
17	MR. FRANK: Mr. Chair, we really need a motion to
18	approve the issuance of the RPF.
19	MR. ANDERSON: Oh. Sorry about that.
20	MS. MANUEL: This is Janet. I make a motion to
21	approve for an RFP to be issued to fulfill the stenographer
22	role.
23	We will miss working with you, Rita. You're so
24	nice.
25	MR. FRANK: Yes, we will.
