

CITY OF PITTSBURGH YOUTH CIVIC LEADERSHIP ACADEMY (YCLA)

Free Program open to all youth residing in the city limits

The Youth Civic Leadership Academy (YCLA) helps youth do the heavy lifting emerging adulthood requires by equipping youth with transferable skills, competencies, and experiential learning necessary to thrive as civic leaders, community stewards, and change-makers in the workplace and beyond. YCLA will provide opportunities for youth to access, explore, and experience career fields typically deemed off-limits for youth of color and those without significant monetary and social capital within Pittsburgh including decision-making fields like civics, education, and infrastructure.

Free dinner will be provided

*Applications due
August 11, 2023, 5pm*

YCLA is an immersive one of a kind 13 week program for high school students that cultivates student leaders.
