

OFFICE OF NIGHTTIME ECONOMY

Active Shooter/Active Threat Prep for Night Businesses

An informative presentation from public safety professionals providing critical guidance on how to recognize and survive an active shooter situation. Tailored specifically for the unique aspects of nightlife activities and building layouts, the training content features real-life scenarios. For owners, management and staff of food, beverage and entertainment businesses, this training is intended to build skill and the confidence to take action and lessen the impact of a violent incident.

For more info,
dates, locations,
scan

What You'll Learn

- Recognize behaviors and warning signs that may pre-empt acts of violence
- How to react quickly and decisively in the chaos of an active threat event
- Tactics for escaping, evading or attacking the threat
- What to expect and what to do after first responders arrive
- Self-Care after the emergency

In Person: Approximately 60 minutes,

City of Pittsburgh Office of Homeland Security

