1.0 POLICY OR PURPOSE

- 1.1 The "Core Values" of the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police clearly articulate to all members, the ideals that will guide organizational conduct. These values establish the terms by which the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police will be held accountable, and serve to challenge and guide all members.
- 1.2 All sworn personnel shall abide, not only to the rules, regulation, policies, and procedures of the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police, but shall be expected to abide by, and adhere to the "Core Values" contained in this policy. Failure to do so on the part of any member of the Bureau of Police may subject that member to disciplinary action.

2.0 CORE VALUES

- 2.1 HONOR – We are men and women of principle; we are driven to pursue the hard right, versus the easy wrong.
- 2.2 INTEGRITY – Integrity reflects our values in action. Our actions reflect the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics; we do the right thing without exception, so that our behavior inspires and sustains the confidence of our community.
- 2.3 COURAGE – In valor there is hope. We are undaunted by the challenges before us, resolute in our commitment.
- 2.4 RESPECT – We respect the dignity and worth of all, and treat citizens and colleagues alike with dignity and respect.
- 2.5 COMPASSION – Ours is profession of service. Our compassion binds us to the communities we serve, and inspires us to help others and promote justice.
